Due to an unexpected power outage last Sunday, the processor in our sound system has unfortunately broken. As a result, we regret to inform you that there will be no live stream this weekend. We'll be using a portable sound system to ensure that the gathering in the Sanctuary still goes as planned. Meanwhile, our leadership team is diligently working on evaluating the options they've been presented with to rectify the situation. We appreciate your understanding and patience as we navigate through this challenge.

The 2023 Holiday Shoppe will be November 11 from 9am-2pm. There are many ways you can help support this great ministry. Make sure to check out the sign-up board in the Gathering Place to sign up for donations or workshops. Talk to Lynn VanHekken if you have any questions.
